

“Grow Our Own” - GO2Teach

Overview

GO2TEACH is a new 2 year-program which combines opportunities at VCTC in the Teachers for Tomorrow program with opportunities in the Arts & Humanities program at SVGS.

Students in this program would:

- Earn 18-21 college credits in preparation for entering a college and a teacher education program
- Receive extensive training and experience in exploring the teaching profession

A tentative schedule and course selection would be as follows:

Junior Year	Jr. Year College Credits	Senior Year	Sr. Year College Credits
SVGS DE Literature, Composition & Ideas I (*BRCC ENG 111 & 112)	6	SVGS DE Literature, Composition & Ideas II (BRCC HUM 111)	3
VCTC Teachers for Tomorrow I (*BRCC EDUC 200)	3	VCTC Teachers for Tomorrow II (*internship)
AP Psychology or DE Developmental Psychology (*BRCC PSYC 230)	3	SVGS DE Sociology of Family (BRCC SOC 200 & 215) or SVGS Communications DE (*BRCC CST 110)	3 or 6
	12		6 or 9

*Required for College of Education and teacher preparation program at JMU

Students enrolled in Teachers for Tomorrow I would complete VCCS EDUC 200 through BRCC.

Students enrolled in Teachers for Tomorrow II would complete 90 hours of supervised internship in classroom with a cooperating teacher. Students would also take the PRAXIS and VCLA.

NOTE: Students would apply to both VCTC and the SVGS Arts & Humanities program. Students must be accepted into both programs to enroll in GO2 TEACH.